Our life is dictated by order.
Whether or not that order lacks equality matters not until it comes down to a point.
Whether action should be taken, I know not.

If you hesitate, you will fail.
If you think twice, you will fail,
If you stop, you will fail, Your mind must be made up in the beginning, your will must be set to the end.

Whether you succeed as a martyr or a leader, Your work will shape our future, One equal, greater future.
